

THE SOCIETY OF CATHOLIC SOCIAL SCIENTISTS

15TH ANNUAL MEETING

Friday, October 26 and Saturday, October 27, 2007

St. John's University School of Law
8000 Utopia Parkway
Queens, New York 11439

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26, 2007

9:00 am – 11:00 am

Board of Directors Meeting, Society of Catholic Social Scientists

11:00 am – 12:00 pm

Editorial Board Meeting, Catholic Social Science Review

11:00 am – 12:00 pm & 1:00 pm – 2:00pm

Pre-registrants' conference materials available

12:15 pm

Mass

St. Thomas More Church - St. John's University Campus Mall

Main Celebrant: His Excellency Bishop DiMarzio, Ph.D., D.D. of the Diocese of Brooklyn

2:00 pm – 3:15 pm Panels 1-11

Panel One: Italian American Catholic Studies

Organizer and Discussant: Donald J. D'Elia-(SUNY-New Paltz)

1. Frank J. Cavaioli, (SUNY-Farmingdale) "Italian Americans and Immigration Policy"
2. Salvatore J. LaGumina, (SUNY-Nassau) "Italian American Catholics During World War II"
3. Salvatore Primeggia, (Adelphi University) and Philip Franco (Diocese of Brooklyn) "The Saints in the Lives of Italian American Catholics: Official and Folk Religion"

Panel Two: University Faculty for Life and Its Long Island Chapter: Goals, History, Activities, and Future

Organizer: Dr. Jane Gilroy, (Molloy College), President, LI Chapter, University Faculty for Life

Discussant: Professor Richard S. Myers (Ave Maria University School of Law; President, University Faculty for Life)

1. Fr. Joseph Koterski, S.J., (Fordham University Philosophy Department)
2. Scott Salvato, Director, Campus Ministries, Molloy College

Panel Three: Eastern Catholicism in the United States

Organizer and Discussant: Maureen Daddona (SUNY-Nassau)

1. Rev. Mr. Nicholas Daddona, (SUNY-Nassau) “Overview: Eastern Catholics in the U.S.: History, Theology, Ritual, Groups, and Future”
2. Maureen Daddona (SUNY-Nassau) “Italo-Albanian-Catholic-Americans”
3. Richard Renoff, (SUNY-Nassau) “The Latinization of the Byzantine Ruthenian Church in the U.S.”

Panel Four: Key Issues Affecting the American Family, the Church, and the Nation

Organizer and Discussant: Frank J. Russo, Jr., American Family Association of New York

1. George Frost (SUNY-Suffolk) “Abortion”
2. Dr. Richard Fitzgibbons, Psychiatrist, Philadelphia, PA, “Homosexuality”
3. Frank J. Russo, American Family Association of New York, “School Choice”

Panel Five: The Contributions of Dietrich von Hilderbrand

Organizer and Discussant: John A. Rao, St. John’s University

1. Clara Sarracco (C.S. Lewis Society) “Primary Colors: C.S. Lewis on Values”

2. Damian P. Fedoryka (Center for Personalistic Anthropology and Ethics), “The Significance of Dietrich von Hildebrand’s Categories of Motivation for Personalist Ethics and Natural Law”
3. John A. Rao, (St. John’s University), “Liturgy, Personality, and the Problems of Modernity”

Panel Six: The New Evangelization in the U.S.

Organizer and Discussant: Dennis Howard, President, The Movement for a Better America, Inc.

1. Thomas Smith, “Post-Modernism and the New Evangelization”
2. Adrian Calderone, (Society of Catholic Social Scientists) “A New Proposal for the Evangelization of Youth”

Panel Seven: The Contribution of Francis Canavan, S.J.

Organizer: Michael Bryce (University of Detroit, Mercy)

1. Robert Cuervo, (Pace University), “Canavan’s Burke: Third Edition”
2. Robert P. Hunt, (Kean University), “Francis Canavan on the Nature of the Liberal Intellectual Tradition”

Respondents: Kenneth L. Grasso, (Texas State University), Lance Roxas, (Kean University), Michael Bryce (University of Detroit, Mercy), William Byrne (St. John’s University)

Panel Eight: Contemporary Catholicism Around the Globe

Organizer: Brian Scarnecchia (Chair of Humanities and Catholic Social Thought, Franciscan University)

1. J. Kent Donlevy (University of Calgary) “The Secular and Sacred Conscience in the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms”
2. Emma R. Roxas (SCSS Chapter-Philippines) “Defending the Faith in the Philippines”
3. John P. McCarthy (Fordham University at Lincoln Center), “The Catholic Church in Contemporary Ireland”

Discussants: Brian Scarnecchia (Franciscan University), and Andrew Essig (DeSales University)

Panel Nine: “Today’s Culture and Its Effects on Psychotherapy Practice”

Organizer: Ann G. Howe, Catholic Charities, Archdiocese of Atlanta

Discussant: Katherine Benes (Institute for the Psychological Sciences)

1. Sandra McKay, “Implications and Methodology in Couples’ Therapy Amidst False Assumptions Present in Society”
2. Thomas Spudic, “Catholic Tools in Clinical Settings”
3. Ann G. Howe (Program Director, Village of St. Joseph Counseling Services), “Faith and Identity in Catholic Psychotherapy”

Panel Ten: Edith Stein: Saint and Feminist

Organizer: Marynita Anderson (S.U.N.Y.-Nassau)

Discussant: Monsignor George P. Graham, President, SCSS-New York Metropolitan Chapter

1. Monsignor Michael Cantley, Pastor Emeritus of St. Anastasia Parish, Douglaston, NY and Professor Emeritus at Immaculate Conception Seminary, Huntington, and St. Joseph’s College, Brooklyn, “Edith Stein: Her Road To Conversion”
2. Janine Kramer, Adjunct Professor of Theology, St. John’s College/ St. John’s University and Director of Religious Education, St. Anastasia Parish, Douglaston, NY, “Edith Stein and the Feminist Mystique”

Panel Eleven: Topics in Economics and Catholicism: I

Organizer: Joseph Burke (Ave Maria University)

1. William Toth (Seton Hall University Institute on Work) “Currency Speculation: A Catholic Economic Reflection”
2. Anthony Santelli, AES Capital, “Compound Interest Greater than Loan Size is Usury”
3. Ronald J. Columbo (Hofstra University School of Law) “Buy, Sell, or Hold? Analyst Fraud from Economic and Natural Law Perspectives”
4. John C. Medaille (University of Dallas) “Equity and Equilibrium: Why Economics Needs Distributive Justice”

Discussants: John Larrivee (Mount Saint Mary's University) and Joseph Burke (Ave Maria University)

3:30 pm - 4:45 pm Panels 12-20

Panel Twelve: Humble and Heroic: The Academic Career of Salvatore J. LaGumina

1. Frank J. Cavaoli (SUNY-Farmingdale), Main Address

Discussants: Mario M. Mignone (University Professor and Director, Center for Italian Studies, Stony Brook University), Salvatore Primeggia (Adelphi University, Dept. of Sociology), Dean Kevlin (Dean of Social and Behavioral Sciences, SUNY-Nassau)

Response: Salvatore J. LaGumina (SUNY-Nassau)

Panel Thirteen: Catholic Contributions in Providing Diversity Within Public Higher Education

Organizer: Florence Scarinci (SUNY-Nassau)

1. Florence Scarinci (SUNY-Nassau) "The NCC Respect Life Committee"
2. Maureen Daddona (SUNY-Nassau) "Teaching About Stem Cell Research"
3. Catherine Vanek (SUNY-Nassau) "Empowering the Disabled"
4. Joseph A. Varacalli (SUNY-Nassau) "The Center for Catholic Studies"

Discussant: Mrs. Patricia Mulrooney (Trustee, SUNY-Nassau)

Panel Fourteen: Evangelization Efforts in the Dioceses of Rockville Centre and Brooklyn

Organizer: Philip Franco (Evangelization Office, Diocese of Brooklyn)

Discussant: Father Brian Barr (Evangelization Office, Diocese of Rockville Centre)

1. Thomas Smith (Diocese of Rockville Centre) "The New Evangelization in Rockville Centre"

2. Philip Franco, (Diocese of Brooklyn) “The New Evangelization in Brooklyn”

Discussant: Dr. Florence Maloney (Joint Respect Life Committee)

Panel Fifteen: The Campaign for the International Right to Abortion in International Institutions

Organizer: Susan Yoshihara (Executive Vice President, Catholic Family and Human Rights Institute [C-FAM])

Discussant: Father Robert Araujo, S.J. (Gonzaga University/Boston College)

1. Stephen M. Krason (Franciscan University) “The Role of NGOs: The International Pro-Abortion Litigation Strategy”
2. Andrew Essig (DeSales University) “International Development Finance: The World Bank and How It Compromises Economic Development by Promoting a Population Control Agenda”
3. Douglas Sylva and Susan Yoshihara: “Human Rights Law: Rights by Stealth and the Role of U.N. Human Rights Treaty Bodies in the Campaign for an International Right to Abortion”
4. Brian Scarnecchia (Franciscan University) and Terrence McKeegan (Franciscan University): “International Development Policy: The Millennium Development Goals in Light of Catholic Social Teaching”

Panel Sixteen: The Legacy of John Paul II

Organizer: Patrick Doering (Duquesne University and Carlow College) “The Anthropological Realism of Pope John Paul II”

1. Professor John Breen (Loyola University of Chicago Law School) “Modesty and Moralism: John Paul II, the Structures of Sin, and the Limits of Law”

Discussant: Father Thomas Acklin, O.S.B., St. Vincent Seminary, “A Psychoanalyst Responds”

Discussant: Daniel Strudwick, “Response: Metaphysical Realism?”

Panel Seventeen: Toward A Theology of Work

Organizer: Donald K. Wilson

Discussant: William Toth (Seton Hall University Institute on Work)

1. Donald K. Wilson, “The ‘Face’ of Modernity: The Professional Expert”
2. Mark E. Ginter (Saint Meinrad School of Theology) “Work and Rest: John Paul II’s Perspective on the Lord’s Day in his Theology of Work”
3. Cynthia Toolin (Holy Apostles College and Seminary) “Modeling a Spirituality of Work”

Panel Eighteen: Catholic Social Teaching Applied: Some Irish Contributions

Organizer and Discussant: William D. Cobert (Chairman, Board of Governors, New York Chapter, Knights of Columbus)

1. Michael Bryce (University of Detroit Law School) “Solanus Casey”
2. Hugh O’Rourke (SUNY-Nassau) “The Irish, The Church, and the Gangs of New York”
3. William Bryk “Dagger John Hughes: Applying Catholic Social Teaching in the Public Square”

Panel Nineteen: Abortion, Contraception, and the Future of the Catholic Church in the United States: The Need for a Comprehensive and Authentic Program in Catholic Education and Communication

Organizer: Joseph Mauceri, M.D. (Cephas Institute)

Major Address: Dennis Howard, President, The Movement for a Better America, Inc.

Panel Discussion: Dr. Jane Gilroy (University Faculty for Life, President, Long Island Chapter), Dr. Donald J. D’Elia (SUNY-New Paltz), Joseph Mauceri, M.D. (Cephas Institute) and Peter O’Hara (Long Island Coalition for Life)

Panel Twenty: The Society of St. Vincent de Paul—Embracing All Works of Charity: Blessed Frederic Ozanam’s Legacy

Organizer: Mary A. McCaffery (Board Member, Central Council of The Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Diocese of Rockville Centre)

Other Speakers and Discussants:

1. Patrick O’Dea (President, Board of Directors, Central Council of The Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Diocese of Rockville Centre)
2. Mary Vitti (Chairwoman, Spirituality Committee, Central Council of The Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Diocese of Rockville Centre)
3. Robert Meekins (Chairman, Conference Concerns Committee of The Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Diocese of Rockville Centre)

5:00 pm – 6:30 pm

Wine and Cheese Reception

Dr. Salvatore LaGumina received a lifetime achievement award for his contributions in Italian-American Catholic Studies by the Society of Catholic Social Scientists and the NCC Center for Catholic Studies—presented by S.C.S.S. member, Dr. Frank Cavaoli

6:30 pm

Dinner, Award and Keynote Address

I. Remarks: “Church and State Today: What Belongs to Caesar and What Does Not,” Archbishop Charles Chaput, O.F.M., Cap., Archdiocese of Denver.

Introduced by Bishop William Murphy, Diocese of Rockville Centre

II. S.C.S.S. Pius XI Award for the Furthering of a Catholic Social Science given to Dr. William A. Donohue by Kenneth Whitehead

III. Keynote Address: “Uncommon Alliance: Religious Conservatives Unite,” William A. Donohue, Ph.D., Chief Executive Officer and President, The Catholic League for Religious and Civil Rights

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 27, 2007

9:00 am - 10:15 am Panels 21-33

Panel Twenty-One: Topics in Economics and Catholicism: II

Organizer and Discussant: John Larrivee (Mt. St. Mary's University)

1. Joseph Burke (Ave Maria University), "Benedict's Reflections on the Economy"
2. Joseph Burke (Ave Maria University), "Distributive Justice and Subsidiarity: The Firm and the State in the Social Order"
3. John Larrivee (Mount Saint Mary's University), "An Interdisciplinary Examination of the Impact of Free Market Systems on Families"
4. John Larrivee (Mount Saint Mary's University), "Economic Stress and Family Dissolution in a Century of Abundance"

Panel Twenty-Two: Topics in Catholic Historical Research

Organizer and Discussant: Marynita Anderson (SUNY-Nassau)

1. Marynita Anderson (SUNY-Nassau), "Valiant Women of Faith and Action: Nineteenth-Century American Roman Catholic Female Leaders"
2. Donald J. D'Elia (SUNY-New Paltz) "The Catholic as Historian"
3. Paul Radzilowski (Madonna University) "The Reduction of Glory to Beauty: Examples from the Historiography of Late Medieval and Renaissance Italy"
4. John Grondelski (Independent Scholar) "Social Justice Issues for 19th and 20th Century Polish Saints"

Panel Twenty-Three: Problems and Prospects in Catholic Education

Organizer and Discussant: Father Philip Eichner, S.M. (Kellenberg Memorial High School)

1. Father Philip Eichner, S.M. (Kellenberg Memorial High School) "K-12 Catholic Education"
2. Anne Hendershott (University of San Diego) "Catholic Identity and Mission at Catholic Colleges and Universities"

Panel Twenty-Four: Problems and Prospects of Globalism

Organizer and Discussant: Anthony L. Haynor (Seton Hall University) Adrian Calderone, (Society of Catholic Social Scientists) “Trans-Humanism: Catholic and Secular”

1. Anthony L. Haynor (Seton Hall University) “Global Ethics: A Catholic Critique”
2. Mark Lowery (University of Dallas) “The Jihadist/Western Crisis: A Battle of Two Fundamentalisms”

Panel Twenty-Five: Eastern Catholic Saints: Developers of Eastern Social Conscience

Organizer and Discussant: Maureen Daddona (SUNY-Nassau)

1. Maureen Daddona (SUNY-Nassau) “The Cappodocian Fathers: Brothers in Faith, Founders of Eastern Christianity”
2. Rev. Deacon Nicholas Daddona (SUNY-Nassau) “Eastern Saints: Praise and Persecution”

Panel Twenty-Six: The Knights of Columbus: Founding, History, Apostolate

Organizer and Discussant: William D. Cobert (Chairman, Board of Governors, New York Chapter, Knights of Columbus)

Speakers: Alex Miller '08, Timothy J. Lang '09, and David M. Gregory '10, Georgetown University undergraduate members of the Knights, will discuss Parish Priest: Michael McGivney and American Catholicism by Douglas Brinkley and Julie M. Fenster, present material on the founder and chaplain of the Knights, and discuss their apostolate at Georgetown. Discussant: Mr. John Mulrooney, Past Grand Knight, Corpus Christi Council, Mineola, New York

Panel Twenty-Seven: Issues of Life and Death

Organizer and Discussant: Joseph Mauceri, M.D. (President, Cephass Institute)

1. Joseph Mauceri, (Cephass Institute, Kingston, New York): “Evolution and the Embryo”

2. Monsignor Robert Batule (Diocese of Rockville Centre): “Humanae Vitae: The Nexus of Personal and Social Morality”
3. Natasha N. Aljalian, J.D., LL.M., Esq. (Boston, MA) “Legal Rights vs. Human Rights: Patents and Morality”

Panel Twenty-Eight: The Sociology of the Two Great Commandments: Shaping the Structure and Function of Society

Organizer: Kenneth Grasso, Texas State University

Major Presentation: Patrick F. Fagan, William H.G. Fitzgerald Research Fellow, Family and Cultural Issues, The Heritage Foundation

Discussants: Kenneth Grasso, Texas State University, and Ronald J. Rychlak, University of Mississippi School of Law

Panel Twenty-Nine: The Voice of the Poor: The Advocacy Mission of the St. Vincent de Paul Society

Organizer: Patrick O’Dea (President, Board of Directors, Central Council of The Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Diocese of Rockville Centre)

Other Speakers and Discussants:

1. James Dilts, (Executive Director, Central Council of The Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Diocese of Rockville Centre)
2. Joan Delaney (Chairwoman, Voice of the Poor Committee, Central Council of The Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Diocese of Rockville Centre)
3. Jan Jamroz (Board Member, Central Council of The Society of St. Vincent de Paul de Paul, Diocese of Rockville Centre and Liaison to Catholic Charities)

Panel Thirty: Topics in Catholic Psychology: Holy Sex, Parental-Child Attachment, Human Formation at a College Seminary, and Post-Abortion Counseling

Organizer and Discussant: Gregory Popcak, Executive Director, Pastoral Solution Institute

1. Gregory Popcak, (Executive Director, Pastoral Solution Institute), “Holy Sex: Four Principles for Negotiating Sexual Conflicts in Marriage”

2. Ian Butler and Michael Jarecki, (Diocese of Lincoln) “The Principles of Attachment Between the Parent and the Child as a Sacrament of the Heavenly Father’s Relationship with His Children”
3. Thomas P. Shubeck, (St. Andrew’s College Seminary, Seton Hall University), “The Role of the Psychologist in Human Formation at a College Seminary”
4. Florence Maloney, (Joint Parish Respect Life Committee), Rachel’s Helpers: A Post Abortion Counseling Service”

Panel Thirty-One: Human Society

Organizer and Discussant: Marie I. George (St. John’s University)

1. Zachary Davis (St. John’s University) “Vital and Personal Solidarity”
2. Marie I. George (St. John’s University), “Aquinas on Trust and Our Social Nature”
3. Grace Natoli (St. John’s University), “Rosimini on the Psychological and Metaphysical Bases of Rights”

Panel Thirty-Two: The Sexual Scandal in the Catholic Church Today: Should The Church Oppose Extending Statutes of Limitation?

Moderator: Kenneth Whitehead, Fellowship of Catholic Scholars

Major Presentation: Charles Molineaux, Fellowship of Catholic Scholars, “Proposition: The Church Should Not Oppose Extending Statutes of Limitation”

Panel Discussion:

1. Stephen M. Krason, Franciscan University
2. Patrick G. Riley, Fellowship of Catholic Scholars
3. John F. Kippley, National Family Planning International

Panel Thirty-Three: Evangelization through the Airwaves: The Example of Radio Maria

1. Florinda Iannace (Fordham University, Emeritus), “Radio Maria: From a Microphone on a Bell Tower to a Global Network”
2. Father Walter Tonelotto, (Director of Radio Maria), “Radio Maria: An Appropriate Response To Soul Searching in our Uni-Dimensional Society Today”
3. Panel Discussion with Father Peter Pilsner of Radio Maria, John Hinshaw, and Leticia Velasquez.

10:30 am -11:45 am
Panels 34-46

Panel Thirty-Four: African American Catholicism and Catholicism in Africa

Discussant and Organizer: Marynita Anderson (SUNY-Nassau)

1. Anthony DiPerna (Molloy College): “Centisimus Annus, Catholic Social Teaching, and Sub-Saharan Africa”
2. Anthony DiPerna (Molloy College): “Mother Patrick and Catholic Missionary Work in Central Africa”
3. Marquita James (SUNY-Nassau) “Pope John Paul II and the African American Experience”

Panel Thirty-Five: Faith and Reason in Catholic Thought as Understood by Pope Benedict XVI

Discussant and Organizer: Father Philip Eichner, S.M. (Kellenberg Memorial High School)

Presentation: Brother Kenneth Hoagland, S.M. (Kellenberg Memorial High School)

Panel Thirty-Six: Catholics in American History: Perspectives on the Founding

Organizer: Kevin Schmiesing, Acton Institute and CatholicHistory.net

Discussant: John F. Quinn (Salve Regina University)

1. Adam L. Tate, (Clayton State University) “Catholicism and American Identity: John Taylor of Caroline, Bishop John England, and the Southern States’ Rights Revival”
2. Scott McDermott, (Vanderbilt University/Saint Louis University), “Orestes Brownson’s Account of the Founding of the American Republic”
3. Kevin Schmiesing, (Acton Institute and CatholicHistory.net) “The Founding in Twentieth-Century Catholic Historiography”

Panel Thirty-Seven: Catholicism Transforming Culture

Organizer and Discussant: Peter Amato (St. Francis College and St. John's University)

1. Peter Amato (St. Francis College and St. John's University) "Servant Christology and the Catholic Church"
2. Bill Antalics, New York City, "Where Are We Going?"
3. Philip Franco (Diocese of Brooklyn) and Salvatore Primeggia (Adelphi University), "The Giglio Feast as An Agent of Evangelization"
4. Charles Russo, University of Dayton, "An Update on Unions in Catholic Schools"

Discussants: John Corbett and Lorry Wynne

Panel Thirty-Eight: "An Afternoon with C.S. Lewis"

Organizer and Discussant: Clara Sarrocco, C.S. Lewis Society

1. Clara Sarrocco, "The C.S. Lewis Society: An Introduction"
2. John McDermott (SUNY-Farmingdale and SUNY-Suffolk) "C.S. Lewis and Flannery O'Connor"
3. Marie I. George (St. John's University), "C.S. Lewis on Extraterrestrials"
4. Cecilia Rodriguez Castillo (Texas State University) "C.S. Lewis' Critique of Jane Austen's Mansfield Park"

Panel Thirty-Nine: The Pius Wars and Sister Margherita Marchione

Organizer: Father Edward Krause, Gannon University

1. Father Edward Krause, C.S.C., (Gannon University) "Pius XII, A Feisty Nun, and Saintliness"
2. Kenneth Whitehead (Fellowship of Catholic Scholars) "Are the Pius Wars Over? They Should Be"
3. Ronald Rychlak (University of Mississippi Law School) "Sister Margherita Marchione: A Life Well Spent"

Discussant: Bill Doino (Catholic Columnist) "Pius XII: An International Perspective"

Response: Sister Margherita Marchione (Fairleigh Dickinson University)

Panel Forty: The Inevitable Metaphysical Connection with Social Science

Organizer: Robert Colbert Rhodes, (University of Texas-Permian)

Major Address: Robert Colbert Rhodes, (University of Texas-Permian), “Prelude to Disaster in Social Science: Ockham’s Irrationalism”

Discussants: Anthony L. Haynor (Seton Hall University) and Thaddeus Kozinski (Our Lady Seat of Wisdom Academy)

Panel Forty-One: Abortion, The Church, and American Society: Past, Present, Future

Organizer: Father Paul Sullins (Catholic University of America)

Discussant: Stephen Sharkey (Alverno College)

1. James R. Kelly (Fordham University) “A Four Decade Old Struggle Toward Prudence: The American Catholic Church and the Politics of Abortion”
2. Jane Gilroy (Molloy College, University Faculty for Life) “The Ellen McCormack 1976 Presidential Campaign: An American Catholic Steps to the Fore”
3. Fr. Paul Sullins (Catholic University of America) “The Post-Abortion Generation”

Panel Forty-Two: The Sociology of New York City

Organizer and Discussant: William DiFazio (St. John’s University)

1. Roderick D. Bush (St. John’s University), “The Black Popular Front and Social Transformation in New York City”
2. Judith DeSena (St. John’s University), “(Clashing Cultures: From Corroding Piers and Hallow Factories to Views of Manhattan for Sale”
3. William DiFazio (St. John’s University), “Community Struggle for Power in New York City”

Panel Forty-Three: The Contribution of Frederic Ozanam

Major Presentation: Raymond Sickinger, (Providence College), “Service, Democracy, and the Common Good in 19th-Century France: The Example of Frederic Ozanam”

Discussant: David L. Gregory (Dorothy Day Professor of Law at St. John’s University)

Panel Forty-Four: Teaching in the Classroom

1. John Pisciotta, (Baylor University), “Pro-Life Themes in a Principles of Microeconomics Course”
2. Mark Roberts, (Franciscan University), “Logical Models and Critical Thinking”

Discussant: Brian J. Simboli (Lehigh University)

Panel Forty-Five: Psychology and Catholicism

Organizer and Discussant: Frank Moncher (Institute for the Psychological Sciences)

1. E. Christian Brugger (Institute for the Psychological Sciences) “Christian Integrative Reasoning: Reflections on the Nature of Integrating the Science of Psychology with Catholic Faith and Philosophy”
2. Peter Malinoski, (Clinical Psychologist in Private Practice), “Foundational Issues in a Catholic Psychotherapy: A Practitioner’s Perspective”
3. Paul Vitz (Institute for the Psychological Sciences) “Messing with the Mass: The Problem of Priestly Narcissism Today”

Panel Forty-Six: The Promotion of Chastity: National and Local Efforts

Organizer: Laura M. Giannuzzi (Campus Ministry, Diocese of Rockville Centre)

1. Dawn Eden (Cardinal Newman Society), “The Cardinal Newman Society’s ‘Love and Responsibility’ Program”
2. John Margand, Esq. (Healthy Respect) “The Healthy Respect Program for Youth”

3. Dr. Nanci Cappola (Director of Curriculum, Healthy Respect) “Programmatic and Evaluation Components of Contemporary Abstinence Education”

Discussants: Florence Scarinci, (Respect Life Committee, SUNY-Nassau), Laura M. Giannuzzi (Campus Ministry, Diocese of Rockville Centre), Virginia Corbett, RN, FCP, (Director of Curriculum, L.I. Teen Freedom Abstinence Education Program), Luciana Reali, JD (L.I. Teen Freedom Abstinence Education Program), Elizabeth Andrew (L.I. Chastity Speaker), and Todd Lemieux (Kellenberg Memorial High School)

12:00 pm – 1:30 pm

Lunch, Conferring of Blessed Frederic Ozanam Award for Catholic Social Action to Sister Margherita Marchione

Ozanam Award granted on behalf of the S.C.S.S. by Professor Ronald Rychlak, Associate Academic Dean, University of Mississippi Law School and Presidential Address by Dr. Stephen M. Krason, Franciscan University of Steubenville, “The Society of Catholic Social Scientists: Fifteen Years and Counting”

Opening Prayer: Father Edward Krause, Gannon University

1:45 pm - 3:15 pm Panels 47-59

Panel Forty-Seven: Encyclopedia of Catholic Social Thought, Social Science, and Social Policy (Scarecrow Press)

Organizer and Discussant: Michael L. Coulter (Grove City College)

1. Richard S. Myers, (Ave Maria School of Law): “History, Structure, and Purpose of the Encyclopedia”
2. Michael L. Coulter (Grove City College) “Content: from A to Z”
3. Stephen M. Krason (Franciscan University of Steubenville) “The Encyclopedia as a Social Movement”

Panel Forty-Eight: Catholic Approaches to Criminal Justice

Organizer: Alfred D’Anca (Mount Saint Vincent’s College)

Discussant: Hugh O’Rourke (Nassau Community College-S.U.N.Y.)

1. Robert Costello (S.U.N.Y.-Nassau) “Immigration Officers and the Deportation of Immigrants: The Case of the Suffolk County, New York, County Jail”
2. Alfred D’Anca (Mount Saint Vincent’s College) “Contradictions and Promises: An Integrated Approach to Criminal Punishment in America”

Panel Forty-Nine: Trends in Sacred Music During the Twentieth Century: An Appraisal

Organizer: Mary Oberle Hubley

1. Mary Oberle Hubley (Nicholas-Maria Publishers) “Singing a New Song: The Subversion of Post-Conciliar Catholic Church Music, 1965-2005”
2. Mary Oberle Hubley (Nicholas-Maria Publishers) “Singing Pro-Life in our Churches”

Discussants: James Martin (St. John’s University) and Adrian Calderone (Society of Catholic Social Scientists)

Panel Fifty: Roundtable: The Ancients-Moderns Distinction: Catholic Perspectives

Organizer and Moderator: Cecilia Rodriguez Castillo, (Texas State University)

1. Robert Hunt (Kean University)
2. Gary D. Glenn (Northern Illinois University)
3. Steven Brust (Catholic University of America)
4. Kenneth Grasso (Texas State University)

Panel Fifty-One: The Sexual Revolution: How Christians Accepted It and How to Counter It

Organizer: Kenneth Whitehead, Fellowship of Catholic Scholars

Main Presentation: John F. Kippley, National Family Planning International

Discussant One: Kenneth Whitehead, Fellowship of Catholic Scholars

Discussant Two: Patrick G. Riley, Fellowship of Catholic Scholars

Panel Fifty-Two: The Legacy of Pope John Paul II Continues

Organizer: Brian Scarnecchia (Franciscan University)

1. Joseph Rice, Independent Scholar, “Fides et Ratio and John Paul II’s Contribution to Philosophy”
2. Peter J. Colosi (Franciscan University, Gaming, Austria campus) “John Paul II and Christian Personalism vs. Peter Singer and Utilitarianism: Philosophical Reflections on the Foundations of Ethics”
3. Jose David Lapuz (UNESCO Commissioner and Executive Vice-President, Philippine Council on Foreign Relations), “The Inspired Thoughts of Pope John Paul II and UNESCO: Why Human Rights and Reduction of Poverty is Quintessentially a Catholic Concern”

Discussant: Brian Scarnecchia (Franciscan University)

Panel Fifty-Three: A Critique of the Writings of Some Prominent Secular Thinkers: Christopher Hitchens, Richard Dawkins, Sam Harris, and Sigmund Freud

Organizer and Discussant: Monsignor George P. Graham, Ph.D., President, New York Metropolitan Chapter of the Society of Catholic Social Scientists

Major Presenter: Sam Nigro, M.D., Psychiatrist, Lakewood, Ohio

Discussants: Jack Nelson, M.D., Psychiatrist, S.C.S.S. member, Pittsburgh, PA, Father Edward Krause (Gannon University), and Christopher Sorochin (St. John’s University)

Panel Fifty-Four: Catholic Faith and Morals in the Institution of the Family

Organizer: Robert Fastiggi, (Sacred Heart Major Seminary)

1. Robert Fastiggi (Sacred Heart Major Seminary) “The Goods, Purposes and the Ends of Catholic Marriage”
2. Elizabeth Holmes “Analyzing Contemporary Family Life: The Thought of Scott Hahn, Aladair MacIntyre, and Father Servais Pinckaers, O.P.”

Discussants: Mark Lowery (University of Dallas) and Damian Fedoryka (Center for Personalistic Anthropology and Ethics)

Panel Fifty-Five: Catholics of the South

Organizer and Discussant: Patrick Foley, Editor Emeritus, Catholic Southwest

1. Patrick Foley (Editor Emeritus, Catholic Southwest) “Catholics of the South: Historical Perspectives”
2. Scott McDermott (St. Louis University/Vanderbilt University), “Catholicism in Tennessee”
3. Howard Bromberg (Ave Maria Law School), “Flannery O’Connor: Southern Writer and Catholic”

Discussant: Donald J. D’Elia (SUNY-New Paltz; Cephas Institute)

Panel Fifty-Six: Catholicism and Social Work

Organizer: Kathleen Neher (President, Catholic Social Workers National Association)

Discussant: Gregory Popcak, Executive Director, Pastoral Solution Institute

1. Kathleen Neher, (President, Catholic Social Workers National Association), “The Founding of the Catholic Social Workers Association”

Panel Fifty-Seven: Resolving Conflict in the Middle East

Organizer and Moderator: Edward McGlynn Gaffney (Professor of Law, Valparaiso University)

1. Edward McGlynn Gaffney (Valparaiso University) “Justice Tempered by Mercy: Peacemakers in the Holy Land”
2. “Home in Israel and Palestine:” A Documentary Film and Discussion Led by Professor Edward McGlynn Gaffney

Panel Fifty-Eight: “Catholicism and Social Science”

Organizer and Discussant: Patrick F. Fagan (William H.G. Fitzgerald Fellow, Family and Cultural Issues, The Heritage Foundation)

1. Randy Lee (Widener University School of Law) “Social Science in the Hands of Robert Coles: The Search for Wisdom in an Information Age”
2. Gerard DeMauro (Diocese of Albany) “In His Image: A Catholic Response to the Demeaning Characterizations of the Modern Social Sciences”

Panel Fifty-Nine: “Catholicism and the Law: Special Topics”

Organizer: Joseph Devaney (The Catholic University of America)

1. Joseph Devaney (The Catholic University of America) “Partial Birth Abortion in the Federal Courts”
2. Lewis M. Wasserman (Virginia Tech University and Wasserman Steen, LLP) “The Right of Students With Disabilities Who Attend Private Religious Schools in New York State to Receive Special Education and Related Services at Public Expense”
3. Edward McNamara and David L. Gregory, (St. John’s University School of Law), “Labor and Employment Ramifications of Diocesan Bankruptcy Filings”

Discussants: Mattei Radu (Villanova University) and Dominic Lombardo (Catholic University of America)

3:30 pm - 4:45 pm Panels 60-71

Panel Sixty: Staying the Course! A Tribute to Monsignor George A. Kelly”

Organizer and Presenter: Monsignor George P. Graham, Ph.D. President, NY Metropolitan Chapter of the Society of Catholic Social Scientists

Discussants:

1. Monsignor William Smith (St. Joseph’s Seminary, Dunwoodie)
2. Patrick G. Riley (Fellowship of Catholic Scholars)
3. Kenneth Whitehead (Fellowship of Catholic Scholars)
4. John F. Kippley (National Family Planning International)

Panel Sixty-One: Attacked on All Fronts: How Secular Ideology is Marginalizing the Rule of Law and Catholic Contributions to Law and Society”

Organizer and Discussant: Piero A. Tozzi, Esq. (Winston & Strawn)

1. Piero A. Tozzi, Esq., (Winston and Strawn), “Introductory Remarks”
2. Professor Richard S. Myers, Esq., (Ave Maria School of Law), “The Privatization of Religion and Catholic Justices”
3. Dr. Charles I. Lugosi, Esq., (Society of Catholic Social Scientists) “The Rejection of Divine Law in American Jurisprudence”
4. Dr. Stephen M. Krason, Esq. (Franciscan University of Steubenville) “Trends in American Law That Are Undercutting Justice”

Panel Sixty-Two: The Impact of Catholic Bloggers: How They Are Becoming An Important Alternate Voice in Catholic Culture

Organizer: Paul Brzezinski

Moderator: Leticia Velasquez

Speakers: Leticia Velasquez, Paul Brzezinski, and Dawn Eden

Discussant: Elizabeth Andrew

Panel Sixty-Three: The Legacy of Cardinal Ratzinger/Pope Benedict XVI and the Direction of the Church Universal

Organizer and Discussant: Brennan C. Pursell (DeSales University)

1. Brennan C. Pursell (DeSales University) “The Historical Theory of Benedict XVI”
2. Emma Roxas, (SCSS Chapter-Philippines) “The Legacy of Cardinal Ratzinger and the Direction of the Universal Church”

Panel Sixty-Four: Critiquing MacIntyre’s Critique of Liberalism

Main Presentation: Thaddeus J. Kozinski, (Our Lady Seat of Wisdom Academy) “Why Political Philosophy Must Fail: Alasdair MacIntyre and Tradition-Constituted Theological Rationality”

Discussants: Stephen Napier (Ethicist, National Catholic Bioethics Center, Philadelphia, PA), Joseph Devany (Catholic University of America), and Marcella Colbert (Director of Mission and Community, Cathedral Parish, Diocese of Madison)

Panel Sixty-Five: Critical Issues in Catholic Education

Organizer and Discussant: Charles Russo (University of Dayton) “The Special Education Rights of Students in Catholic Schools”

1. Gerald M. Cattaro (Fordham University), “The Status of the Superintendency in Catholic Schools”
2. Sal Ferrara (President, Xaverian High School, Brooklyn, New York), “School Governance and School Boards in Catholic Secondary Schools”
3. Kevin Brady, North Carolina State University, “Bullying Without Borders: Monitoring Student Bullying and Harassment in Cyberspace”

Panel Sixty-Six: Roundtable Discussion with the S.C.S.S. Sociology Disciplinary Section: “Developing a Sociology Textbook As a Companion Volume for the Compendium of Catholic Social Teachings”

Organizer and Moderator: Stephen Sharkey (Alverno College)

Panelists: Fr. Paul Sullins (Catholic University of America), Anthony L. Haynor, Seton Hall University; Alfred D’Anca (Mt. St. Vincent’s College), Anne Hendershott (University of San Diego), James R. Kelly (Fordham University), Robert Colbert Rhodes (University of Texas), and Monsignor Robert Batule (Diocese of Rockville Centre).

Panel Sixty-Seven: Catholicism and Politics

Organizer and Discussant: Michael L. Coulter (Grove City College) Andrew Essig (DeSales University) “United States-Holy See Diplomacy: The Establishment of Formal Relations”

1. Mark E. Ginter (Saint Meinrad School of Theology) “Cooperation in Evil Acts: Principles of Discernment for Office-holders and Citizen-voters”
2. Eugen L. Nagy (George Washington University) “Religion and Politics: Augustine and Kierkegaard on the Human Condition”

Panel Sixty-Eight: Economics and Catholicism: III

Organizer: Carmine Gorga (President, Politics, Inc.)

1. Carmine Gorga “Four Economic Rights and Responsibilities as Answers to Universal Poverty and the Anxieties of the Affluent”
2. Carmine Gorga “A Revision of Keynes’ Model”
3. Carmine Gorga, “Somism: Beyond Individualism and Collectivism: Toward a World of Peace and Justice”

Discussants: John Rao (St. John’s University), John Medaille (University of Dallas), and Anthony Santelli, AES Capital

Panel Sixty-Nine: The Use of Virtue in the Treatment of Psychological Disorders

Organizer and Discussant: Eve Rosno (Catholic Social Services [CSS] of Southern Nebraska)

1. Aaron Stratman, (CSS of Southern Nebraska) “A Theoretical and Theological Basis for the Use of Virtue in Clinical Psychology”
2. Eve Rosno, (CSS of Southern Nebraska) “Specific Applications of Virtue in Empirically Supported Treatments for Psychological Disorders”

Panel Seventy: What Catholics Need to Know About Islamic Jihad

Organizer: Madeline Greenberg (Society of Catholic Social Scientists)
Madeline Greenberg (Society of Catholic Social Scientists), “What Catholics Need to Know about Islamic Jihad”

1. Howard Bromberg “Islamic Jihad and the Caliphate”

Discussant: Mark Lowery (University of Dallas)

Panel Seventy-One: Strengthening Catholic Higher Education: A Roundtable Discussion

Organizer: Arthur Landry, M.D.

Panelist One: Rev. Richard Ryscavage, S.J. (Fairfield University)

Panelist Two: Father William McCarthy, “Why is it Necessary that all Catholic Universities follow Ex Corde Ecclesiae with a specific emphasis on the Legacy of Pope John Paul II”

Panelist Three: Joseph A. Varacalli, “The Key Issue is Personnel” (SUNY-Nassau)

5:00 pm

Mass

St. Thomas More Church - St. John’s University Campus Mall

The Grand Knight, Deputy Grand Knight, and Advocate of the Georgetown University Knights of Columbus Council, all Georgetown University undergraduates, were the Servers.

6:30 pm

Wine and Cheese Reception

Reflection, “Remembering Monsignor George A. Kelly” by Patrick G. Riley of the Fellowship of Catholic Scholars and the granting of the SCSS and NCC Center for Catholic Studies lifetime achievement awards to Monsignor George P. Graham, Ph.D., by Stephen M. Krason, President, Society of Catholic Social Scientists)

7:30 pm

Closing Dinner

Closing Remarks: Father Richard John Neuhaus, Editor, First Things, “The Catholic Public Intellectual.” Father Neuhaus will be introduced by Monsignor Robert Batule of the Diocese of Rockville Centre.